

CARAVAGGIO MARBLE

SOURCE: ITALY

Here, nature mirrors the great painter's art, where bold gestures of bronze and white dance across deepening shadows.

Caravaggio's dramatic character emerges through a network of veining: white ribbons slice through the surface with crystalline precision, while warm copper and rust tones weave an elaborate tapestry that seems to glow from within. Its ability to simultaneously ground and elevate a space makes it valuable for projects seeking to create environments of sophisticated drama.
